PREFACE.

THE Plates in this volume comprise facsimiles of all the Papyri of which the texts are printed in the accompanying Catalogue of Greek Papyri in the British Museum; and, in addition, a few small fragments of Papyri CIX. and CXXI., not transcribed in that volume, are here reproduced (see Catalogue, pp. 84, 150, 157, and Plates 51, 93, 98–100). The arrangement of the Plates is the same as that of the texts in the Catalogue. Except that Plates 36–71 (containing magical documents) are for the most part later than Plates 80–127 (containing accounts), the order is roughly chronological, the Ptolemaic documents coming first, the Roman next, and the Byzantine last. The dates here attached to the facsimiles are those assigned to the MSS. in the Catalogue, where the reasons for so fixing them have been stated. A discussion of the palæographical results derivable from the study of these documents will be found in the Introduction to the Catalogue.

A numerical Table is prefixed to the Plates, to facilitate reference.
