WOULD STOP COTTON PLANTING, DOOMS MILLIONS TO STARVE

OUTLAW PLANT IN LA., OTHER STATES FOLLOW

On the insistence of Gov. "Pajama" Huey Long, the Louisiana legislature has unanimously passed a law outlawing the planting of cotton anywhere in the state in 1932, providing other states growing 75 percent of the country's cotton pass a similar law. The governors of Texas, South Carolina, Georgia and other cotton growing states are talking of calling a special session of the state legislature to pass a similar law.

Due to the world crisis—the demand for cotton has fallen because the working masses have no money with which to buy finished cotton products—there will be a surplus of about 10,000,000 bales of cotton on hand at the close of this season. The Farm Board, with its project of plowing under one third of the cotton and the new plans try to make the poor farmers, the tenants, and crop-pers suffer the effect of the crisis.

If no cotton is to be planted next year, what are the millions of small cotton farmers and tenants going to do? That is a question that Huey Long, his banker friends and big landowners are not interested in answering. Cotton offers the only means—small as they are—for the poor farmers and tenants to obtain enough money with which to buy their necessities. Bankers, merchants and landowners will not stake small farmers and tenants for the planting of vegetables or any other crop but cotton, since this can be sold for cash and debts and advances collected. How are the tenants going to pay for their ground rent and tools and work animals—even within the limits of the peonage system of the South—with which to raise food stuffs in the great "live-at-home campaign" that is supposed to take the place of cotton? If there is no cotton planted next year, it means that there will be no farming at all for the great majority of the farming masses. It will mean starvation for them. That is the plan of Huey Long.

If this plan goes into effect it will mean that at the price of starving millions, the surplus cotton now held by the banks, large merchants large landowners and the Federal Farm Board will be sold at higher prices for a profit. Dollars for the bosses—starvation for the millions.

The only final solution possible for this state of affairs is the overthrow of this system of starvation for the millions and profits for the bosses. The American workers and farmers will have to follow the example of the Russian workers and peasants—take over the land, the factories and the government and see to it themselves that all the workers and farmers get enough to eat and wear. Then there will be no such crisis.

Communist For Mayor In North Little Rock

NORTH LITTLE ROCK, Ark.—The first Communist candidate ever to be announced for Arkansas qualified for the city elections here. Dominic Zini, who will run for mayor on the Communist ticket on September 15th.

Comrade Zini was arrested last fall during a demonstration by tenant farmers for relief following the march on England, Ark., by 500 farmers who demanded and got food. He represents the Communist program in the city election, the most important points of which are cash relief for the unemployed workers and the starving farmers.

Active Chatta. Worker Jailed

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn.—Oscar McDonald, militant Negro worker, was arrested here while walking down the street and an old charge of assault was revived against him in an effort to frame him and railroad him to jail for his working class activity. The International Labor Defense is defending him and obtained his release on $2,000 bail.

McDowell is charged with shooting with intent to kill Rufus Ball, a Negro who under the influence of the local NAACP and the Ministers' Alliance, beat up his wife for attending a Scottsboro Block Committee. Ball also beat up McDowell's aged mother. McDowell warned Ball to keep out of his house, but he continued his terrorist methods for the Black Jades and a fight resulted in which McDowell was wounded in the arm. When this happened which was a few months ago, McDowell was arrested, but on the defense of the I.L.D. his case was dismissed in the police court. The rearrest of McDowell means that the police and the local Negro mis-leaders are trying to "get him" for his activities in the Scottsboro case.

100 Years Ago --- Nat Turner

During the early days of Negro slavery in this country, as well as in the later stages the Negroes revolted time and again, in spite of the cruelties, whippings and pillory that always followed such revolts. The Negro people showed the greatest courage and determination in their fights for liberation.

The Nat Turner Revolt was the 27th of the Negro rebellions recorded by the white prejudiced historians of this country. Of the many slave rebellions the Nat Turner Revolt, one hundred years ago (Aug. 21, 1831) was the best planned and it excelled all the others in its conspiratorial form. The leaders quietly and systematically organized the slaves. The following report shows how they carried on their work.

Free Braxton On Bond; Legion In Anti-Red Drive

BIRMINGHAM, Ala.—Eugene Braxton, young Negro worker, one of many arrested in connection with the reign of terror here against Negroes arising from the Shades Valley shooting, was released on $150 bond while the International Labor Defense appealed the vicious sentence against him of $25 fine and 90 days on the chain gang. Harry Jackson, district organizer of the Communist Party, is free on $500 bond after being held in jail a number of days in an effort by the Birmingham police department to use the Shades Valley affair as an excuse for smashing the Communist Party.

The Executive Committee of the Alabama American Legion, meeting here last week, made the drive against the Communist Party its major task and put Capt. R. B. Laird of Huntsville, chairman of the Americanization committee, at its head. Laird has been carrying on a campaign against the workers in his home city.

A statement issued by the Legion says in part: "The legal decision condemning the Negro rapists in the Scottsboro case, the action of authorities in Tallapoosa county in recent racial trouble (Share-Croppers' Union.—Ed.), means used in Jefferson county to find the Negro murderers of two girls, our system of race segregation are being viciously attacked by paid agents of the Communists and by literature in its name." It states that "all legal ways will be used to stop the spread of Communism." The American Legion, always a ready tool of the bosses on this occasion also is rallying its forces, which include A. F. of L. fakers, in an effort to stop the rising unity of white and Negro workers in the fight against starvation and wage-cuts.

Nat Turner preached in North Carolina on the 14th of August. There many of the slaves who listened to him signified their readiness to support him by "wearing round their necks red bandanas, and who in many ways showed their rebellious spirit. This behavior, however, was not understood until after the insurrection. (not understood by the landowners.—Ed.)".

The revolt was originally set to begin on July 4 of the same year, but the rebels changed the date to August when they saw the unusual preparations being made for Independence Day. August the crops were already in and many of the white landowners would then be on their hunting and fishing trips.

The country was thrown into a pan-

Shoots At Unarmed Men At Soup Kitchen

BULLETIN

HARLAN, Ky.—Attorney Franklin Reynolds of Mount Sterling, Ky., where most of the cases have been transferred for trial, has been retained by the International Labor Defense. The General Defense Committee of the I. W. W. has refused to permit Richard A. Dowling of New Orleans, who had offered his services free to the I.L.D., on the defense, altho all the defendants had signed statements welcoming Dowling. Over 175 miners face trial, including several Negroes and a few women. Forty-seven are now charged with murder, 20 with criminal syndicalism, 48 with banding and confederating, 60 with robbery. Criminal syndicalism cases due for hearing last Tuesday were expected to be shifted to other counties by Judge Jones.

HARLAN, Ky.—One miner was killed outright and two others wounded, one fatally, when deputy Sheriff Joe Fleener drove up to a miners' relief kitchen one mile out of Harlan last Sunday night and fired point blank at the unsuspecting miners standing on the pavilion. Joseph Moore was shot in the heart and died instantly. Julius Baldwin was shot twice in the head and had little chance for recovery, and his brother, Jeff Baldwin, was shot twice in the shoulder.

This is the renewal of a murderous drive against the miners by John Henry Blair and his imported gunmen, after they had raided miners' homes throughout the county confiscating firearms so that the miners would have nothing to defend themselves with. The pavilion where the attack occurred was used as a relief kitchen by the miners to feed the starving and their children. A similar relief kitchen had been blown up with dynamite a few weeks ago at Evarts.

The gunman, Fleener claimed that the men opened fire on him as he drove up to the pavilion, but it hardly stands to reason that at such close range Fleener would not even be touched and he could inflict fatal wounds on three miners at the same time. There is also a gas station at the pavilion and what happened was that Fleener drove up under the guise of asking for information and opened fire as soon as the three miners appeared.

Carlo Hyatt, 19-year-old miner, was shot and killed at a mining camp four miles west of Harlan by Deputy Sheriff Ed Rose, whose story is that Hyatt was drunk and resisted arrest. The young worker's father, Hugh Hyatt, was wounded in the hand by the deputy.

At the same time, the coal operators, through their courts, are laying the ground for railroading 35 miners framed on murder charges to the electric chair, and scores of others to long prison terms on charges of criminal syndicalism and conspiracy. Fifty-one of the cases have already been transferred to distant counties by the coal operators' man, Judge D. C. Jones, where it would be easier to get convictions from a jury of landowners and businessmen.

The coal operators fear the solidarity and militancy of the miners in Harlan and Bell counties. The cases have been transferred to Montgomery and Clark counties. Thirty-six more indictments were returned by the Grand Jury Tuesday week, including

WORKERS MUST RETURN PAY TO DAM COMPANY

By a Worker Correspondent

Blufftown, Texas.

A giant hydro-electric dam is being built at this place by the Emery, Peck & Rockwood Co., and I have been working on the pipe-fitting gang.

About a week ago I made the remark that we should do something about getting better wages. A stool-pigeon reported my remark and I was fired the next morning. The foreman claiming that I had been drinking in camp. Very easy to see through that since there is nothing to drink in camp, not even good water.

Conditions for the workers here are terrible. Only those in the company camp get enough to eat. Most of the workers are glad to get a job of any kind so they may get credit for groceries.

The company's laborers receive only 25c an hour. They insist on the men staying in the camp where he is charged $8.40 a week for board and bunk. A worker making 25c an hour has very little left on payday.

Those who work the timber contracts have tried unsuccessfully to come to an understanding about the price. The timber should pay from $15 to $20 per acre, but some has been let for as low as $3 an acre.

ALA. NATL. GUARD Prepares for War

By a Worker Correspondent

Birmingham, Ala.

The Alabama National Guard is sure getting its war time training to be good cannon fodder for the bosses. According to the papers, they are being trained this year in camp on a WAR TIME FOOTING—with all sorts of formations, maneuvers, and so forth.

Likewise they are prepared to crush in blood this winter any attempts of the white and Negro workers to fight for relief against the starvation of unemployment or against wage-cuts and layoffs. They are now having a sham battle between the "Blues" and the "Reds." It is plan that this winter they will certainly be used against the Reds—and not in a sham battle either. Young workers—in the National Guard and elsewhere, we have got to see thru these war plans of the bosses and organize ourselves for better conditions and against WAR. Join the Young Communist League.

Woll Again

NEW YORK, N. Y.—Enlarging the international committee to fight the "reds," Matthew Woll, secretary of the American Federation of Labor and chairman of this committee, has invited the German League for the Defense of Western Civilization to become the German section of this international boss organization to fight workers. Matthew Woll, the big sell-out chief of American labor, takes his place with the Chamber of Commerce gang to suppress labor the world over.

BERLIN, Germany.—Fearing the mighty power of the German workers under the leadership of the Communist Party, the German government is carrying on widespread raids upon headquarters of workers' organizations and homes of militant workers. Flying squads of policemen totalling 1,000 officers are leading the raids.

No 'Baccy For 30 Days—50c for S. W.

By a Worker Correspondent
San Quentin Prison, Calif.

I received my August 1st copy of the SOUTHERN WORKER yesterday. I intended to renew my subscription sooner, but money is a novelty in the outside world nowadays, and doubly so in prison.

However, I am coming through with another half-dollar for six months more of your valuable publication.

This is the best I can do at the present time. It means no chewing tobacco for 30 days for me. And knowing Southerners who use the weed, you realize this is quite a sacrifice.

So dig into the comrades out there. If a "convict" can do this much, they ought at least to equal it.

"A Nice Crop But Can't Get Anything For It"

By a Farmer Correspondent
Sumter, S. C.

This is one of the worst times I ever did see. I don't know hardly what to do. I have worked hard all year and have a nice crop of cotton and corn. I made it with not very much to eat.

Now I am not going to get anything for it. I don't see no other way but to get together and organize and fight and that must be quick, for the cold winter is near.

What will the poor farmers do if they don't fight against hunger now? How in the world can a poor man eat with ten-cent meat and five-cent cotton?

Miners Wife Tells of Thugs Activities In Harlan County

By a Worker Correspondent

Harlan, Ky.

Just a few words from the awful, hellish place they call Harlan. This morning four Baldwin thugs came over to my house hunting for my son, saying he had a few Southern Workers.

I told them I didn't know where he was and they started off and turned and came back and called me a liar. I asked them didn't they think I could tell the truth, and they said "No."

Oh, Gee! They talked terrible to me. I called one of them a damn liar and he said to "go back and shoot her brains out."

They call us Red Necks. I had much rather be a Red Neck than a damn thug.

Why don't Sheriff Blair and the coal operators take the thousands of dollars they are paying out to those Baldwin Felts and thugs and give it to the poor little pale faced children who are plodding the streets, starving to death. No! They put up at the best hotel and sit all lit up at card tables smoking cigars and having a big-eyed time.

It looks like you are passing a regiment when you pass the New Harlan Hotel the times when they are not running their legs off after the SOUTHERN WORKER and DAILY WORKER. They surely must like to read them.

What do people mean to let dirty dicks like those to stay in their town. But they have no law in Harlan County. The thugs make their own law. I reckon folks think they have to abide by it.

They went to Bill Gibbs house the other day and set up two machine guns and had 10 or 12 men along before they dared search it for one little man. Fellow workers, keep the good work going.

Starving Children Eat Rinds Left By Dogs

By a Worker Correspondent
Chattanooga, Tenn.

I want to tell you workers of a family of children staying in my neighborhood. They are starving. Their mother is gone and their father has no work.

The children eat out of garbage cans, and pick up melon rinds after the dogs have had their fill of them.

If you report it to the city charities, the colored woman that looks after these cases asks you why you are interested in these starving children. She says "It is nothing to you." These children live on Garfield St.

The charity woman's name is Mrs. Bindum and she talks to people like they were dogs, and turns her nose up at you and runs you out without a

45c Day For S. C. Cotton Pickers

By a Worker Correspondent

Sumter, S. C.

I am a laborer and that is all I have to depend on. I have nine in the family and three of them can do nothing but eat, and $2.70 is all I can get for a week's work. And that is for food to feed us all and to get clothes for my children.

Now cotton is here to pick, but we can't make anything hardly at 30c a hundred. People, let's get together and organize and fight for better conditions.

We have nothing to face the cold winter with. There is not one person in this condition, but everyone is in the same shoes.

Another 10% Wage Cut For Victory Workers

By a Worker Correspondent
Greenville, S. C.

The Victory Monaghan Mill Company has just put over another 10 per cent wage cut on the workers.

The carpenters of Monaghan Mill also got a cut from 30c per hour to 20c per hour. They told the carpenters if they didn't like that they could quit, for they could get all the carpenters they wanted at this price.

The Monaghan Mill workers are organizing, and they are organizing into a fighting union, the N.T.W.U., and not the A. F. of L. They know the A. F. of L. is nothing but a fake union and that it works hand in hand with the bosses, and not with the workers.

10,000 Tex. Workers Jobless As Martial Law Is Declared

Remember Bosses 1917 Lies And Ala. Terror Now

By a Worker Correspondent
Birmingham, Ala.

The Negro workers in Ala. are now faced with a great boss terror. They have arrested some of us. They are shooting some of us. They threaten to shoot anybody that has Red literature in his house.

But we are going to continue this fight and struggle. The police say the Communist Party is to blame because they kill us and shoot us up. They blacken their faces and do their dirt and then blame it on the Negroes.

They forget what they promised a few years ago when they wanted us to go to war. They said we were no more divided, but we all would be as one nation and one people.

In the war they Jim-Crowed the regiments and made the Negroes do the dirtiest work and since then they kill without cause.

Now there is another war coming, just over the hill, and they will want us to fight again. The only war we must fight in is a war in union with the white workers against the bosses that rob us and our families.

WORKERS GAIN BOYS' FREEDOM

By a Worker Correspondent
Charlotte, N. C.

Any white man can arrest Negro children in Charlotte.

There were two Negro boys arrested by a white landlord. He brought them into town and left them in a car.

A worker who was passing by asked the landlord what he was going to do with the boys. The landlord said the boys had been stealing wood, and he was carrying them to jail.

The workers in the neighborhood immediately got together a small group of fifteen and demanded immediate release of the two boys, as this charge was nothing but a frame-up.

The two boys went home to their mothers. This is an example of what class conscious workers can do. The workers who demanded the boys' release had never been members of a militant workers' organization before. After a small discussion they realized the need for unity to succeed in rescuing the two boys.

Meetings Banned

By a Worker Correspondent
Tyler, Texas.

All public meetings except church services have been prohibited for the period of martial law, by Gen. Jacob Walters, provost marshal.

The ban is aimed primarily at smaller companies affected by curtailment of production in the East Texas oil fields, but it applies with equal force to gatherings of workers thrown out of employment as a result of this warfare between the big capitalists and the little capitalists.

All civil rights including the writ of habeas corpus, have been arbitrarily suspended by the intrepid Jake, who in private life is a millionaire oil man and corporation lawyer. Jake has been given absolute authority by Gov. Ross Sterling, his business partner. Jake would not think twice about shooting a militant worker on the verdict of a drum-head court-martial.

Fascism reigns in Texas. It is a case of government for the pirates, of the pirates and by the pirates. But every class-conscious worker knows that this government is controlled by the boss.

"White Man's Nigger" Creed

The program of the Black Judases has finally been put down in black and white by DuBois, writing in the September issue of The Crisis, official organ of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. It is an official statement of policy, expressing in words what has so plentifully been expressed in deeds by the Black Judases in the Scottsboro case, the Camp Hill, Ala., events and in the Chicago eviction massacre.

It is a very carefully worded statement by a master of demagogic, contradicting itself a dozen times, yet its basic conclusion stands out clearly. It is primarily directed against the Communists, to whom increasing masses of Negro toilers are looking for leadership, and yet just because of the tremendous Communist influence among the Negroes DuBois is forced to concede certain points, only to contradict them again later. He concedes that: "The importance of the Russian Revolution cannot be gainsaid." Only to contradict this important concession by stating that the Russian revolution and the Soviet Union "leaves him (the Negro) just where he was before the Russian revolution," denying the tremendous importance of this historic event in pointing the way and shaping the struggles of the oppressed Negro masses throughout the world.

DuBois is forced to concede that the capitalist politicians can offer no solution to the Negro masses, yet he extends a pleading hand to those very capitalists whose politicians he just got through rejecting. In one place, hypocritically stating that since the foundation of the N.A.A.C.P. "there has never been a moment when the dominating leadership of the American Negro has been mainly or even largely dominated by wealth or capital or by capitalistic ideals," yet not a word about the large donations received from wealthy white bosses to enable the N.A.A.C.P. to continue its work of betrayal. And later on, forgetting what he had said barely a half-page back: "We have in 20 years of struggle, enlisted the sympathy and cooperation of the rich, the white and the powerful." Equally treacherous and deceitful statements follow. "The capitalists are against mob violence," says this sage of the Black Judases, "and would listen to reason and justice in the long run." On the other hand, according to this collector of 30 pieces of silver, the white workers are the Negro's enemies, their lynchers and torturers. The Communists are crazy, he says, young jackasses leading the "ignorant Negro masses" to suicide, to the lynch rope and murderous posses. The white worker is to blame for the persecution of the Negroes, the white bosses and landowners are the Negroes friends.

And then we read further on: "The foundation of its present worldwide power (power of the ruling class.—Ed.) is the slavery and semi-slavery of the colored world, including the American Negroes. Until the colored man, yellow, red, brown and black, becomes free, articulate, intelligent and the receiver of a decent income white capital will us the profit derived from his degradation to keep white labor in chains."

But how is this freedom to be obtained—by cooperation with the white ruling class against the white workers, answers DuBois, and not by a fighting solidarity of Negro and white workers against their common enemy the white boss and landowning class. As DuBois and his N.A.A.C.P. cronies have shown in deeds, their ambition is to further split up the working class, strengthen the color line among the workers, for which task they are gratefully supported in dollars by the white ruling class. This new talk of DuBois—alio making an attempt to confuse the Negro workers by empty radical phrases thrown in here and there—is the same old boss talk: "The poor whites are your enemies, we, the bosses, are your friends. Be a white man's nigger."

DuBois, Pickens, White and others of their ilk have become "white men's niggers," have received a degree more of freedom and much comfort for themselves, but at a price—the betrayal and selling out of the masses of Negro toilers, by helping to strengthen the bonds of wage slavery and peonage on white and Negro alike by intensifying race prejudice, by strengthening the color line among the working class. As tools of the white ruling class they have viciously fought every effort of the white and black toilers to unite and fight as one against slavery and starvation and oppression.

Against this policy of rank betrayal, as formulated and polished up by DuBois there stands the militant and faithful leadership of the Communist Party, based on the solidarity of all workers of all races and nationalities in the struggle against all bosses and their hangers-on—a struggle which will find its victory in the overthrow of the capitalist system and in the building of Socialism.

"Some People Just Won't Work"

By a Worker Correspondent
Austin, Texas.

"Some people just won't work."

So whines Joe Amstead, for years owner of a cigar store and now local unemployment director by appointment of his former business friends on the city council. It seems that Austin workers won't pick cotton for 40c a hundred and this puzzles the industrious Joe.

Picking cotton in the refreshing sunshine is such pleasant work, as any southern worker can testify. Besides one can earn anywhere from 80c to $1.60, if he works from sun-up to sundown.

The Wall street speculators who control the cotton market are not interested in the plight of the poor farmer who grows the cotton or the worker who picks it. It is of no concern to them that the tenant receives less than a nickel a pound for cotton, that pregnant women miscarry under the burdens of the cotton sack, that children are kept out of school because every member of the family must toil like oxen if an existing wage is to be made. No, they are interested in lining their pockets at the expense of the sweating masses only.

International Youth Day Nat Turner

By DAVE DORAN

Out of the criminal slaughter of millions of young workers in the last war, was born International Youth Day. In the very heat of the war in 1915, young worker delegates of ten countries of Europe met at a conference and pledged to fight against all boss wars. This conference denounced the killing of young workers in a war for profits for the bosses and set aside a day on which the young workers all over the world would demonstrate and protest such wars. This day is called International Youth Day, and comes on September 8th.

Today the young workers of the entire world take up the fight laid down at this conference, under the leadership of the Young Communist League in every capitalist country. Though already sixteen International Youth Days have passed in the sixteen years since 1915, yet the young workers of the South have never before learned of the existence of this world-wide day of protest against imperialist wars. This was because the Young Communist League of the South has only just recently penetrated the South and has only just become the real leader of Southern young workers in the struggle against the bosses for better conditions.

Worst Conditions for Young

This, the seventeenth Anniversary of International Youth Day, is of great importance to the young workers of the South. Amidst growing starvation, wage-cuts and terror, the boss class is swiftly moving toward war. In all suffering imposed upon workers during "peace time," the young workers feel the worsening conditions worst. The boss class cuts wages of young workers first and forces them close to starvation on the job. Consequently, when they are fired they are the first to starve. In many cases of terror used by the bosses to paralyze the working class movement and to keep the workers in everlasting misery, the young workers are picked out to be the victims. This we have in the Scottsboro Case, to use just one example, where nine young Negro workers are about to be railroaded to the electric chair for "raping" two white prostitutes they never saw before their trial.

Such false charges and terror are used by the boss class to keep the white and Negro workers divided and fighting each other, rendering both helpless to the attacks of the boss class upon their living conditions. When young and adult white and Negro workers are divided and terror used against them it becomes easy for the boss class to force them into a new war.

Today lynch law is used throughout the entire length and breadth of the Black Belt as a means of binding the Negro and white share croppers closer to starvation and to assure the white master class of an army of cannon fodder in the next war.

Starved Into Army

Children and young workers are being prepared in schools for this next war. Military training in schools prevails throughout the South. In the agricultural districts 4H Clubs are being formed by the white landowners where the young worker farmers are injected with a war hysteria against the Soviet Union, the Workers' and Farmers' country. Young unemployed workers are attracted into the army and navy. In one city alone in the South 100 young workers applied to join the army in JUST ONE WEEK. Driven by hunger, young unemployed workers all over the South are entering the army where they will be prepared to be the first to get killed off in the coming war.

Though the boss class through their news liars are shouting peace, yet they accept these young workers into the armed forces and are spending billions of dollars for battleships, cannons, poison gases, airplanes and other war materials. Millions of dollars are spent by the boss class on propaganda against the Soviet Union. All of the schools, 4-H Clubs, newspapers and other bosses' agents are working up a frenzy against the Soviet Union. All this is calculated to make a war easy against the only workers' country, by getting the young workers prepared to fight and get killed protecting starvation conditions here and crushing the Soviet Union.

Young workers, smash the war schemes of the bosses. Make the 17th Anniversary of International Youth Day, the first one in the South, a day of mighty protest against starvation, wage-cuts, terror and war. Show the boss class that we will fight for our own interests against theirs! Defend the Soviet Union against the bosses of the entire world! Turn the next war, from a war for profits for the bosses into a war for a Workers' and Farmers' Government in the U. S. A! Down with hunger! All war funds for the unemployed! Demonstrate International Youth Day, Sept. 8th, under the leadership of the Young Communist League! Young workers, join the Young Communist League!

"Free" Fla. Workers Get 40 Cents a Day

By a Worker Correspondent

Tampa, Fla.

Well, comrades we are going thru the same terror that all organizers are meeting in the lily-white South. The cops have used their power in trying to suppress us but we are still here and here to stay.

A young unemployed worker was arrested for selling the Labor Defender on the streets today. He was released after he had told the court about the miserable conditions of the unemployed workers of Tampa and himself.

A seaman on the beach here has to pay $1 more for a job on the State highway than a citizen. One seaman know worked 9 hours a day and made 40c. Then he had to wait three days for the inspector to pass the word whether or not he would get paid.

The state is taking the convicts off the roads as the free workers can do the work much cheaper. If you don't work for 40c a day you get put on the chain gang for vagrancy. Tampa puts you on a street cleaning

(Continued From Front Page) greatest courage, determination and conspiratorial discipline. They were, however, very poorly armed, so that at the very first meeting with the white militia, the rebels were forced to use gravel for shot.

The rebels planned to reach Jerusalem, the county seat, where they had expected reinforcements in ammunition and men. About 3 miles from Jerusalem they met the first slaveholders were beaten and forced to retreat, but they obtained reinforcements and several Negroes were killed and many wounded. Later they met a cavalry attack and were beaten and scattered. Nat made another attempt to rally his forces but the federal militia was in full control, routing and killing off all suspects.

After hiding for eight weeks in a field Nat Turner was discovered, but made his escape. He continued to roam from place to place, being given food and other aid from Negroes in the neighborhood. In the meantime the whites had placed a prize on his head and large parties searched for him far and wide. On October 30, he was discovered and captured.

The merciless revenge that followed is indescribable. Every slave in the territory was suspected and many were shot in cold blood. Turner himself was cruelly mishandled by large mobs and was hung on Nov. 11th. His body "was skinned and grease made of the flesh," according to a report of the time and money purses were made out of the skin.

A serious shortcoming of the revolt was the lack of political outlook. The rebels set out to free the slaves by killing off the whites. They had no plan or program.

It was important at the very beginning of the rebellion for the rebels to declare the taking over of the land from the landowners and distributing it among the Negro masses.

Then again, the rebels had to face the entire organized American state with its armed forces and its economic machine. It had not yet become possible for a slave revolution to secure the aid and unity of the working class and the poor tenant farmers, not only in the South, but in the North as well. WITHOUT A WELL-ORGANIZED AND CENTRALIZED PARTY THERE CAN BE NO SUCCESSFUL REVOLUTION. The rebels had individual leadership, but no centralized party.

In view of these great shortcomings and the brutal system of oppression the Negroes suffered under, and the absolute lack of freedom it is indeed remarkable and to the credit of the Negro masses that this revolt extended "from the state of Delaware to the Gulf of Mexico" The great significance of this revolt lies in the fact that it was not limited to a few leaders, but was a broad mass movement.

Soon It Will Be War

By a Worker Correspondent

There are hundreds of people here that do not have clothes to wear and some have not bread to eat. Some have no place to stay and nowhere they can get a job.

Those that have jobs work so little that they cannot make a living. Not the way they are cutting wages and laying some of them off two and three days a week.

The way the world is going now something is going to happen and happen quick. If it don't make a change soon it is going to be war and a big one at that.

The only way for us to do is to organize and fight for better conditions, white and colored together.

Starvation in Land of Plenty, What's Wrong?

Danville, Va.

While walking up Main Street yesterday, near the postoffice I saw a large picture in the window of an empty store. This picture showed 70,000 bushels of wheat poured out on the ground in Kansas.

There was also a picture taken in Kansas near the same place showing a farmer swapping a bushel of wheat for three loaves of bread. Now we all know there are at least 20 times that much bread in a bushel of wheat, so what I want to know is who got the other loaves.

Thousands of bushels of wheat poured out on the ground. Millions of starving workers. Something wrong somewhere. Workers, isn't it time we were getting busy and doing something?

gang without pay. You can get a chance to work down here, but try and get paid for it.
